

Use the descriptions below to identify the paintings. Please write down the title of the

1. Graffiti-covered wall and office equipment.
2. A knight in shining armour directing the erection of phallic-shaped objects.
3. Out of focus opera house balcony.
4. Fake Matisse over video background.
5. Forgery of a well-known luxuriant jungle.
6. A horse in slippers surrounded by torn fragments of wallpaper and demolished walls.
7. Awkwardly painted portrait of a man (self-portrait?) in a classical pose.
8. Upturned policeman's helmet filled with high-rise tower blocks and surrounded by decorative plastic piping.
9. Fast-moving landscape as though seen through a train window.
10. Hairpieces excised from their owners and floating in a blue haze.
11. Glimpses of dreams or anxieties portrayed in a series of miniature oil paintings on plywood.
12. Cult television plodder duplicated.
13. Fluorescent bookshelves.
14. Incomplete wall of heroes.
15. Old and new architecture side by side.

What exactly is the Great Wall of China (Muraille de Chine) in the exhibition ?

Can you identify any of Frank Eon's heroes ?

Mission: take a picture of yourself with Nina Childress' fairground headless figures and send it to jbass87@aol.com

FRANC
on Painting
EXCHANGES
LIMOUSIN

Ask members of the gallery staff to help you if you get stuck.